Still celebrating Cinco de Mayo? Try out the Zilch Sugar Free Margarita Mixer. Mix one zero-calorie packet with tequila and water, or club soda and a squeeze of lime, to save 500-plus calories on one of the most caloric alcoholic drinks at the bar. It's non alcoholic so with a club soda and lime juice, you can have a mocktail at 0 calories. (10 single serving packets. $4.99, plus shipping and handling, online at zilchmixers.com.)
